Course announcement for the United Nations Orientation Course (UNOC); 20 - 24 June 2022

1 Background

The high demand for military and police from Troop and Police Contributing Countries, as well as civilian and military staff, to United Nations Peace Keeping Operations (UN PKO) requires basic preparation and training of the personnel who will deploy to the operations. Norwegian Defence University College (NDUC) / Command and Staff College (CSC) / Norwegian Defence International Centre (NODEFIC), has for many years offered a variety of international courses for personnel that are currently serving or are to serve in UN PKO and other international operations all over the world.

The UNOC introduces the United Nations, its structure, policies and operations, as well as current issues affecting the organization.

2 Discussion

NODEFIC has the pleasure to invite, and encourage, qualified personnel to apply for the UNOC 2022, scheduled Monday 20. – Friday 24. June. The course will be conducted at Akershus Fortress in the center of Oslo, Norway.

NODEFIC does not charge any course fee. Food and accommodation during the course is 130 euro per night. Travel expenses are to be paid by sending unit/nation.

Be aware of, if needed, that it is the sending unit/individual responsibility to apply for a visa for the course participants. Please find the Course Description<sup>1</sup> indicating the details attached.
